CHEF Project:

Find Out What You Like!

Dreaming of becoming a celebrity chef or opening your own restaurant or do you just enjoy cooking for family and friends?

Wilson Tech's CHEF Project will teach you basic culinary techniques that you will then practice in Tech's professional kitchen as you prepare delicious entrees and desserts.

Guest speakers, including experienced local chefs, will demonstrate the skills that you will need for success in this exciting field. Come explore the many career opportunities that are available for professionally trained chefs!

The CHEF Project was developed on the solid foundation that Wilson Tech has had teaching culinary arts to high school juniors and seniors.
